

Woman's Advantage with DHEA

Dietary supplement for women to enhance sensuality and youthful vitality.*

When we are young, we take vitality for granted. But as we age, our bodies slow the production of key hormones needed to maintain our essential youthful vitality. Throw stress into the mix and the aging process soon gets an upper hand: our appearance changes, our body shape changes, our sense of well-being decreases—the list goes on. This is nature's plan for us. But what if we have different plans? What if we want to feel young and look young as long as possible? Can we really slow down or reverse the effects of the aging process?

Good nutrition, proper skin care and regular exercise all help us live longer and look, and feel better. But now it's time to take a giant step forward.

Woman's Advantage with DHEA, with its proprietary blend of select herbs, contains natural hormone precursors that work in harmony with the needs of the female body. The result is a supremely dependable, superior-quality dietary supplement that helps revitalize and rejuvenate.* Woman's Advantage with DHEA works deep within a woman's system to help elevate sensuality, vitality and stamina as well as to create a sense of well-being.* You feel "in the groove."
